1. It is extremely desirable for the Sovmat Staff or someone representing the interests of the Sovmat Staff to participate in the briefing of all outgoing military attaches.

a. Preferably, this briefing should be held at the CIA.

b. Assuming that the attaches were briefed in groups, this could be accomplished in approximately 45 minutes.

c. Assuming the use of the CIA Orientations Room, the Sovmat briefing would require no support other than the coordinating support of the Office of the Director of Training and such visual aids as were found necessary to present the subject matter clearly.
